Bachelor of Arts in Journalism

Journalism

Prepares students for positions in broadcast and multimedia reporting, writing, editing and producing, photojournalism, social media, web and publication design, media innovation, entrepreneurship and news management.

The journalism major prepares students for jobs in news organizations. Students learn to find and tell stories that matter on multiple platforms for a variety of audiences. They develop storytelling skills in audio, visual and written forms. They learn what makes a story important, how to gather credible information and how to present it in the most effective way while balancing the ethical and legal needs of news organizations and audiences. Grady journalism graduates are prepared to be leaders and media entrepreneurs. Our graduates excel at jobs in online media, television, magazines, newspapers, and any career that values ethical, credible communication skills and leadership.

Advertising

Prepares students for positions in advertising management, media planning and sales, message development and execution, and research design and analysis.

Students learn about the social and economic order in which advertising operates. The advertising curriculum educates students for future jobs as analysts, decision-makers, creative thinkers and planners in advertising and related fields. Graduates work in advertising agencies and related organizations, or in the advertising and marketing communication department of businesses.

Public Relations

Positions in public relations, media relations, and message design and development.

The public relations major prepares students for the tasks and responsibilities of management, emphasizing operational and ethical standards of practice. Students learn about the social and economic order in which public relations operates. Graduates work in public relations agencies and related organizations or in the communication/public relations departments of businesses, government, and other organizations, such as not-for-profit institutions.

Entertainment and Media Studies

Prepares students for positions in the entertainment industry, including film, television and new media.

This program prepares students for careers in the entertainment media industries. The major includes emphasis areas in video production (for film, television, online and mobile distribution), screenwriting and digital media production. The major focuses on entertainment media, providing students with professional courses in the theory and production of creative media within a media studies framework.

News Literacy Certificate

Offered by the Cox Institute for Journalism Innovation, Management and Leadership, this certificate program enhances students' ability to discern between credible information and information disorder through critical examination of how we access, analyze, verify, create, and share media messages with an emphasis on news. Students study the critical role news organizations play in our marketplace of ideas and will explore journalistic responsibility and important ethical constructs of the news and information ecosystem.

New Media Certificate

The New Media Certificate supplements any undergraduate or graduate degree and is a credential that demonstrates a student is "technowledgable": the understanding of new media technologies and their application in a chosen field. Certificate students have access to hands-on classroom environments, innovative technologies and networking opportunities that lead to jobs. Application required.

Sports Media Certificate

The Carmical Sports Media Institute at the University of Georgia offers the Southeastern Conference's only dedicated program of study for undergraduates interested in sports reporting and writing, broadcasting, social and digital media, and media relations and communication. We use the press boxes and sidelines at UGA, around Athens and in nearby Atlanta as our real-world learning labs. We teach students the enduring fundamentals of sports journalism and communications, and we train them to adapt to the industry's evolving platforms and tools. Our graduates are working at ESPN, The Washington Post, the SEC Network, The Athletic, various NFL and MLB teams, and many local TV stations and newspapers. Application required.

JOUR MAJOR TECH REQS

FIRST SEMESTER

LAPTOP (APPLE PREFERRED)

Student's laptop must be capable of running the latest versions of:

- Microsoft Office Suite
- Adobe Creative Cloud

MacBook Pro is the recommended choice for photo and video-heavy programs

- 16 GB RAM & at least 256 GB of storage is recommended (but more is better)
- More robust graphics capabilities will improve rendering times with photo & video projects

A Windows-based laptop is okay; however,

- It must be able to run the same software
- Faculty will teach using Apple platforms
- Students may have to answer some of their own questions regarding Windows platforms

* The department grants access to a pool of Canon lenses and accessories for students enrolled in the upper level photojournalism courses. It would be advantageous to select a Canon DSLR so as to have access to that equipment. Students who plan to pursue the advanced photojournalism courses are encouraged to consult with Mark E. Johnson at mej@uga.edu.

DIGITAL SINGLE LENS REFLEX (DSLR) CAMERA

Camera Specs:

- Sensor: 12 megapixel minimum resolution; APS-C or full frame size
- Full manual control over aperture, shutter speed, ISO, focus, and white balance
- JPG file format
- SD card
- Optical viewfinder
- 3x normal Zoom

Current recommendation if taking Intro to Photojournalism course only:

- Canon T6
- 18-55 mm lens

Current recommendation if taking Intro to Photojournalism and Intro to Video Journalism:

- Canon T6i
- 18-55 mm lens

SECOND SEMESTER

COMPACT VIDEO CAMERA

Camera Specs:

- Recording format: MP4
- Audio: Mic input, headphone out
- Media: SD Card

Accessories:

- Lavalier microphone
- Basic tripod
- Small LED light

Current recommendation:

- Canon HF R800 (if only taking Intro to Video Journalism and not Intro to Photojournalism)

Your Intended Grady Checklist

VISIT GRADY.UGA.EDU

This is required reading for all Intended-Grady students! Learn about Grady majors, career opportunities, who's who in Grady College, admissions information, scholarships, clubs, famous alumni, and much more.

JOIN THE GRADY LISTSERV

The listserv provides information about events, courses, and the application process that is vital to your intended-Grady experience. Visit <https://grady.uga.edu/newsletter-registration/> to join.

MEET WITH YOUR GRADY ADVISOR

Schedule an advising appointment with your Intended-Grady advisor in the Exploratory Center via SAGE each semester to plan for your coursework leading up to the application.

CONSIDER A DUAL DEGREE, MINOR, OR CERTIFICATE PROGRAM

With early planning, you may be able to graduate with a dual degree. For example, in addition to your Grady AB degree, you might work towards an AB degree in another field of interest. Minors and certificate programs are another excellent ways to fulfill upper-level and general elective hours. See the online Bulletin at bulletin.uga.edu for information about majors, minors, and certificate programs.

JOIN A GRADY STUDENT ORGANIZATION

Try on a major and see how it fits! Join our student organizations to meet and socialize with students with similar interests, take field trips, and learn from visiting professionals. Visit grady.uga.edu/clubs-organizations/ to learn more.

GAIN INTERNSHIP EXPERIENCE

You can gain valuable work experience through internships. These learning experiences are essential to your education and will enhance your job opportunities. Complete a non-credit internship as an Intended-Grady student and you will be ready for a more prestigious internship for academic credit later. Visit career.uga.edu to learn more!

PLAN TO STUDY AWAY

Will a study away program fit into your academic plans? Grady offers a variety of study away programs during the summer sessions, and UGA offers over 90 study away programs in 61 countries. For more information, visit grady.uga.edu/study-away/ or the Office of Global Engagement website at international.uga.edu/oie.

APPLY FOR A GRADY SCHOLARSHIP

College scholarships are awarded to outstanding students each spring for the following academic year. Visit grady.uga.edu/grady-students/scholarships-student-support/ to learn more.

ATTEND A GRADY ADMISSIONS INFORMATION SESSION

This is a must-do! Grady College advisors and staff will provide specific information about the admissions process and will be available to answer questions.

APPLY FOR ADMISSION TO GRADY COLLEGE!

The application deadline is 5 p.m. on Friday of the second full week of classes. The application form and admission requirements are available on the Grady website at grady.uga.edu/apply/.

About the Grady College Application

All majors in Grady College are considered competitive and require an application. The Grady College application is comprised of three parts (online application, Statement of Interest, and Grady GPA) and is only open during the fall and spring semesters. Students that apply during the fall semester will start Grady coursework in the spring (if accepted) and students that apply during the spring semester will start Grady coursework in the summer or fall (if accepted). Students must meet the following requirements in order to be eligible to apply:

- Be accepted to UGA and currently enrolled in classes at the University of Georgia
- Have 24 hours in AREA I-V completed or in-progress of completion
- Have an overall GPA of 2.8 or higher
- Have a cumulative UGA GPA of 2.0+ (be in good academic standing for application semester)

THE ONLINE APPLICATION

The online application can be completed on the Grady website as soon as the application opens. Students will need to select their 1st, 2nd, and potentially 3rd major choice option (if applying to EMST or PR*) on this online form. Students should always select the major that they want to pursue the most as their 1st choice.

Students can submit the online application even if they do not currently meet the above requirements or if they haven't completed the Statement of Interest. Students just need to be sure that those requirements are met by the deadline. The online application must be completed, but is not a part of the application criteria.

THE STATEMENT OF INTEREST

The Statement of Interest makes up 25% of the application criteria when applying to Grady College. Students will be required to write the statement at the University Testing Services and will be given up to 90 minutes to complete up to two pages of content. The statement should focus on the 1st choice major the student is applying to and should showcase the student's passion, promise, and credibility for pursuing the major in Grady College.

THE GRADY GPA

The Grady GPA makes up 75% of the application criteria when applying to Grady College. Students do not have to do anything extra for this portion of the application, but rather Grady will look at specific grades in the students' completed core requirements. The Grady GPA is comprised of 24 hours of credit from Areas I-V of the core. Grady College will always do what is best for the student when calculating this GPA if the student has more than 24 hours completed.

THINGS TO NOTE ABOUT THE APPLICATION SEMESTER

All Grady College majors require four semesters (roughly two years) to complete; this does not include the application semester or any summer semesters. Students should plan to take their major intro course (ADPR 3100 Principles of Advertising, ADPR 3850 Public Relations, JOUR 3030 Media, News, and Consumers, EMST 3010 Media Entertainment & Popular Culture) if applying during the second semester of their second year. Students may also want to consider taking the intro course to the 2nd choice major, especially if they are not sure about their competitiveness for the 1st choice major.

To learn more about the Grady College application, visit <https://grady.uga.edu/apply/apply-grady-college/>.

Your Grady College Application Checklist

Application Opens: November 15 (Spring application); April 15 (Fall application)

Application Deadline: 5 PM on Friday of the second full week of classes each Spring and Fall semester

Apply Online: <https://grady.uga.edu/apply/>

(Students accepted through the spring semester application process may begin their Grady majors the following summer or fall)

Applicants must meet the following eligibility requirements by the application deadline:

- Be accepted to UGA and currently enrolled in classes at the University of Georgia
- Have 24 hours in AREA I-V completed or in-progress of completion
- Have an overall GPA of 2.8 or higher
- Have a cumulative UGA GPA of 2.0+ (be in good academic standing for application semester)

You can check this information on your DegreeWorks degree audit here. Any further questions about Grady application may be directed to gradyabj@uga.edu.

Reminders:

Attend a Grady Admissions Information Session

Sign up for the Intended Grady student listserv: <https://grady.uga.edu/newsletter-registration/>

Complete the Online Application

- Prioritize your major choices (PR & EMST are only 1st choice options)
- Apply here: <https://t.uga.edu/5Ci>

Prepare for the Statement of Interest

- Connect remotely with the UGA Career Center via Handshake
- Schedule an appointment with the UGA Writing Center (<https://uga.mywconline.com/>)

Complete the Statement of Interest at University Testing Services *

- Register here: <https://testing.uga.edu/>
- Cost: $30
- Students' Grady GPA (AREA I, AREA IV, and AREA V grades) makes up 75% of the Grady application
- The Statement of Interest makes up the remaining 25% of the application

Check your UGAmail regularly

- Applicants will be informed of admissions decisions in early March/October
- Admissions notifications will be sent to your UGA email address with instructions for confirming your major
- There will be a deadline provided for accepting your major in this email correspondence
- You can login to your UGAmail account through your MyUGA Portal

How to Write Your Statement of Interest

Honors students are not required to write a Statement of Interest.

1. Brainstorm / Marinate / Talk

Your statement should offer a sense of who you are and what you want to accomplish.

Questions to get you started:

- What meaning have you drawn from any Grady courses so far? What Grady courses are you excited to take?
- What aspect of your major attracts you?
- Why is Grady College the place for you?
- What professional goals do you have? How will Grady help you attain these goals?
- What related experience do you have? In other words, how have you invested your time? This can include clubs and volunteer work.
- What will make someone say, "This is a great candidate!"
- Is there anything special/interesting about you that stands out?
- What is your story about how you became interested in your major?

2. Free Write

- Take a break after composing.
- Look for claims requiring evidence.
- Make sure everything is doing some kind of work.
- Read your work aloud.
- Read on a different medium.

3. Aim for a Unique Start

- Use readable sentences that are clear, interesting, detail-driven, and concrete rather than abstract.
- Don't use generic phrases.
- Don't repeat information from the application.
- Show a distinctive and compelling interest in the major, career, or field.
- Tell your story about why you want to apply to this major.

4. Create Several Drafts

- Plan ahead. Before your appointment, make an outline of the main points you want to cover and the examples you want to use for each.
- Don't try to memorize your statement word for word.
- Practice writing in a timed environment. For example, open a blank document and set a timer for 90 minutes. Try not to get distracted or leave the document.
- Focus on your first major choice.

How to Write Your Statement of Interest

5. Ask for Feedback

- Make an appointment with the UGA Writing Center.
- Schedule a time to meet with the Grady College Career Consultant in the UGA Career Center.
- Ask friends or older students for feedback.
- Ask graduate students to review it.
- Try out multiple versions and get feedback on ideas.

6. Know the Grading Rubric and Testing Environment

- The Statement of Interest is 25% of your application scoring. The other 75% of your application score is your GPA in 24 hours in Areas I-V of the general education core curriculum.
- Scoring is based on:
 - Content and Credibility (10 points)
 - Credible investment in major, goals, or field and/or shows relevant professional experience.
 - Content is trustworthy: experiences and facts are discussed in detail and their significance is articulated.
 - Style and Execution (10 points)
 - Demonstrate overall organization, structure, and style that is competent in written communication.
 - Risks in approach or style do not undercut credibility or effectiveness.
 - Sentence-level issues don't undercut or interfere with the message.
 - Overall Effectiveness (5 points)
 - Shows evidence of promise of study and work in mass communication.
 - Showcases a student who can introduce and communicate interests and ambitions persuasively.
 - Statement represents an effective piece of communication.
 - Total: 25 points possible
