

Parallel Plans

for Terry College of Business Majors

This handout suggests various majors, minors, and certificate programs for students interested in business careers. The offerings listed on this page may provide relevant training for a variety of careers in business.

Terry Major	Parallel Plans * indicates this major is also a minor
Accounting	Financial Planning Mathematics* Statistics*
Economics	Agricultural and Applied Economics* Consumer Economics* Environmental Economics and Management* Financial Planning Mathematics* Sport Management* Statistics*
Finance	Financial Planning Mathematics* Statistics*
International Business	Anthropology* Foreign Language (major or minor) Geography* Global Studies (certificate) International Affairs Political Science*
Management	Agricultural and Applied Economics* Agribusiness Consumer Economics* Consumer Journalism* Communication Studies* Disaster Management (certificate) Environmental Economics and Management* Fashion Merchandising* Furnishings and Interiors Hospitality and Food Industry Management Housing Management & Policy* Natural Resource Management and Sustainability Parks, Recreation, and Tourism Management Personal and Organizational Leadership (certificate) Philosophy* Psychology Sociology* Sport Management*
Management Information Systems (MIS)	Applied Data Science (certificate) Computer Science* Computing (certificate) Cognitive Science* Data Science Geography Geographic Information Science (certificate) Statistics*

	Technical Certifications (through Skillsoft or LinkedIn Learning)
Marketing Many marketing students begin their careers in sales, which tend to be open to a variety of majors. Students should pursue relevant internships and involvement to supplement their degree.	Advertising Agricultural Communication Art (Graphic Design) Consumer Journalism Communication Studies Environmental Economics Management Fashion Merchandising Food and Fiber Marketing (minor only) Food Industry Marketing and Administration Furnishing and Interiors Health Promotion Natural Resource Management and Sustainability Parks, Recreation, and Tourism Management New Media (certificate) Public Relations Psychology Sociology* Sport Management* Studio Art (minor only)
Real Estate	Geography* Housing Management & Policy
Risk Management & Insurance (RMI)	Actuarial Science (certificate) Disaster Management (certificate)

Potential Minors for Business Majors

- Communication Studies
- Fashion Merchandising
- Foreign Language
- Human Services
- Public Policy and Management
- Sport Management
- Statistics

Potential Certificate Programs for Business Majors

- Actuarial Science
- Applied Data Science
- Computing
- Entrepreneurship
- Environmental Ethics
- Financial Technology
- Global Studies
- Leadership and Service
- Legal Studies
- Music Business
- New Media
- Sports Media
- Statistics

For more information on majors, minors, and certificate programs, please refer to the UGA Bulletin. Bulletin.uga.edu/MajorsHome.aspx

The UGA Career Center is here to help.

Make an appointment with a Career Consultant by calling 706-542-3375 or by logging into Handshake. You may also visit Career Center Drop-In Hours, held every Monday-Friday from 11am-2pm in Clark Howell Hall.

UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA
 Career Center