

Course Withdrawal

- FACT SHEET -

dropping vs withdrawing

Students may drop and add courses to their schedule without penalty during the Drop/Add period. After the Drop/Add period ends, students will have to withdrawal from a course if they wish to no longer be enrolled.

See the Academic Calendar for Withdrawal Deadline.

WITHDRAWING MAY AFFECT YOUR:

TRANSCRIPT

Courses you withdraw from will have a W next to them on your transcript. Receiving a W does not affect your GPA.

CO-REQ COURSES

You must drop co-requisite courses. Only departments can process overrides to allow student to stay in a course

FULL-TIME STATUS

If withdrawing means you will drop below 12 semester hours, you will no longer be a full-time student.
